

CODE OF CONDUCT

CLUB INSTRUCTORS

- Arrive to your class in plenty of time to set up, check the area and equipment.
- Dress in the appropriate, official uniform at all times.
- Always use appropriate language.
- Always behave in an appropriate manner.
- Make every effort to set a positive example.
- Inspect licence dates and take responsibility for ensuring your students are in date.
- Hold the appropriate valid qualifications, DBS and insurance cover at all times.
- Deal with all membership and other administration duties in a prompt and efficient manner.
- Make sure all activities are appropriate for the age, ability and experience of those taking part in the session.
- Take responsibility for the young people in your care until they have left the session.
- Treat all fellow members with respect and provide equal opportunities.
- Consider the well-being and safety of all students before the development of performance.
- Deliver feedback to students and parents in a consistent, fair, polite and accurate way.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with the students, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Encourage members to value their progress and not just the results.
- Get prior agreement from parents or guardians of young members before transporting them anywhere such as training or competition.
- Adhere to the Child Protection Policy at all times.
- Demonstrate positive leadership to all members.
- Practice absolute control of all demonstrations so not to cause injury.
- Conduct yourself with the dignity that your position demands.
- Continue your personal development as a martial artist
- Attend the High Grade session, on a regular basis (minimum 12 per year) and send apologies via High Grade Forum if you are unable to attend.
- Adhere in full to all guidelines and policies laid down by the Cobra Martial Arts Association.

Failure to adhere to this code of conduct could lead to disciplinary action and/or termination of club membership.
