

CODE OF CONDUCT

CLUB MEMBERS

- Always arrive on time for classes and always wear appropriate uniform/correct clothing. Long hair tied up, no jewellery no chewing gum.
- Always be polite and never be rude to anybody. The use of inappropriate language or threatening/aggressive behaviour will not be tolerated.
- Respect fellow club members, competitors in competitions, coaching staff, volunteers and members of the public. Treat others how you wish to be treated yourself.
- Inform your coach before your training session starts of any injuries or if you're feeling unwell.
- If you're unable to make class for a significant time, contact your instructor and let them know.
- Treat all equipment with respect.
- Always show good sportsmanship, win with modesty and lose with dignity.
- Treat your training partner with respect at all times. All techniques and sparring should be with the utmost control at all times so as not to cause injury.
- Wear appropriate protection at all times.
- Co-operate with your club instructor, team mates and your opponent.
- Younger members must always remain with instructors to the end of the session until they are collected by a parent or guardian.
- Help your instructor and training partners move equipment safely.
- Where appropriate remember to bow to your training partner and instructors.
- Work hard on the mat and be proud to be a member of this club.
- Accept your instructor's decision in connection with gradings or competitions.
- Pay training fees on time and fully.
- Keep your club licence in date. (You are reminded that should your club licence expire for 12 months due to inactivity grades should not be worn and are subject to re-assessment.)
- Take responsibility for your personal possessions at the end of the session.

Failure to adhere to this code of conduct could lead to disciplinary action and/or termination of club membership.

Signed..........Ian Gauldie (Senior Instructor C.A.UK.)20/12/21.....